THE MIST and the Weekly Oregonian one year, in advance, $3.

The trading steamer Minnie Hill, owned by Larsen and Saxon, of Gill-ton, burned in the Beaver slough about 12 o'clock on Sunday night last. The steamer was used as a general mer-chandise store and had lately received Trespass notices on cloth for sale at this office.

Goods exchanged for produce at $1,500. The steamer as well as the stock is a total loss. About $130 in cash and all of the crew's wearing ap-parel was lost. The loss falls very heavy on the owners as this is just the beginning of the trading season. It will be remembered that Mr. Larsen formerly kept a store at Gillton which he also lost by fire a year or two ago. The boat and stock was insured in the Columbia Fire and Marine Insurance company of Portland for $1,500.

Many years practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., Solicitors of Patents, at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that had been previously rejected. The Dalles was visited by a fire Wednesday, destroying seventeen blocks in the business part of the city, in fact, almost completely wiping out the business center. All the principal business houses were destroyed, in-cluding the opera house, armory and a number of churches and dwellings. The loss is estimated at $530,000. Hop picking has commenced in most of the yards of the Willamette valley, and thousands of pickers are now engaged in gathering the crop. Some damage on account of lice is reported, but a fair yield will probably be saved. The market is very discouraging to the growers, on account of which some yards will probably not be picked.

Last Sunday night at Hillsboro one of the large trunks belonging to a comwill preach at Rainier, on Friday mercial traveler, traveling with the Leak Advertising company, was broken open and a large amount of samples is supposed that he was accidently stolen. The trunk was left on the platform at the depot and the burglabroke the lock and carried away a load of samples.
